Summer 2009

July 4th Festivities!

Robin Tarr, Founder of JTF, received the San Diego Hometown Heroes Award sponsored in part by KyXy Radio 96.5 and the San Diego County Fair at the July 4th Celebrations in Del Mar, for making a difference in the community. JTF representatives Michael Woodey, Sherry Yardley, Beth Atuatasi and Dot Saurer also enjoyed the Hometown Heroes Parade, Southwestern Marines Band, Fireworks Display, and Mo Town's Smokey Robinson Show.

"This poem written in tribute to Robin Tarr of Encinitas, one of the recipients of the 2009 KyXy Radio 96.5 Hometown Heroes Award on July 4, 2009. July 2nd, marked the 11th anniversary of her son's tragic death." - Dorothy Saurer, Santee, CA

A MOTHER'S LOVE

When Jonathan Tarr died at seventeen,
It was the saddest day his mother had seen.
At first she didn't know what to do,
Tears and heartaches were all that she knew.
Now, 11 years later, she knows,
Jonathan's memory blossoms and grows.
Through a Foundation that she began,
To help others with a future plan.
And Jonathan smiles from heaven above,
Because he knows of his mother's love.
The world is a better place by far,
Because of that mother -- ROBIN TARR.

Gifts for 2009 Scholarship Recipients

Terry Tillman is the author of The Writings on the Wall, a historical non-fiction book about the Berlin Wall. November 9, 2009, marks the 20th Anniversary of the Fall of the Berlin Wall. An international celebration is being planned to position Germany as a “bridge to peace.” The book will be reprinted with messages from Horst Köhler, President of Germany and William Robert Timken, Jr. U.S. Ambassador, and Mr. Tillman has set out on a world-wide speaking tour. JTF student recipients received this book through the generosity of The I AM Foundation San Diego and 22/7 Company.

MusiVation International and Michele Blood of La Jolla, CA., donated autographed sets of inspirational and motivational books and CD's for each Class of 2009 graduate.

Several elected officials awarded Certificates of Recognition to the Class of 2009 Graduates! This collection of valuable documents can be used by the students for internship portfolios or accompanying applications for jobs and scholarships.
